SOS requires every reporting entity in the State to timely file an Annual Report every year. If you do not file a report for more than 60 days past its due date, you may be at risk for penalties and fines and good standing.

Each document that is required or permitted to be filed in the records of the secretary of state pursuant to any provision of this title or any organic statute of this state shall contain all information required by law of this state to be contained in the document but, unless otherwise provided by law, shall not contain other information"

Each reporting entity shall deliver to the Secretary of State, for filing pursuant to part 3 of this article, Annual Report that states the entity name of the reporting entity, the jurisdiction under the law of which the reporting entity is formed." If the Business entity is still in Good Standing, Business Compliance Services, a private entity, will assist in filing your Annual Report.

The documents offered by this advertisement are available to consumers for lesser price from state SOS website. You are NOT required to acquire services from this company and the company is NOT affiliated, endorsed, or approved by any governmental agency.
